OUR CORE FRAMEWORK

THREE OPERATIONAL PILLARS

Project S.H.E. turns awareness into action through youth-led events, funding safehouses, and changing mindsets.

01

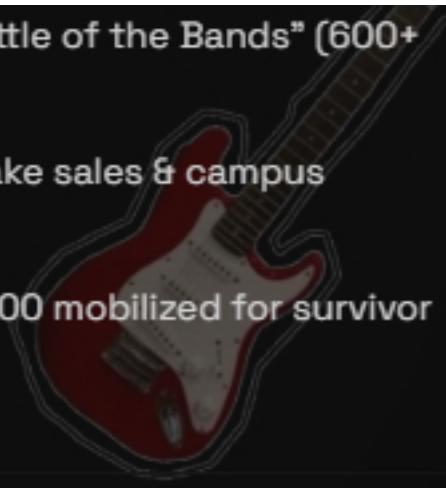

GRASSROOTS MOBILIZATION

COMMUNITY FUNDRAISING

Organizing youth events like bake sales and our 'Battle of the Bands' (which drew 600+ people) to raise money for survivors.

- Flagship “Battle of the Bands” (600+ attendees)
- Youth-led bake sales & campus initiatives
- Over ₹2,00,000 mobilized for survivor care

03

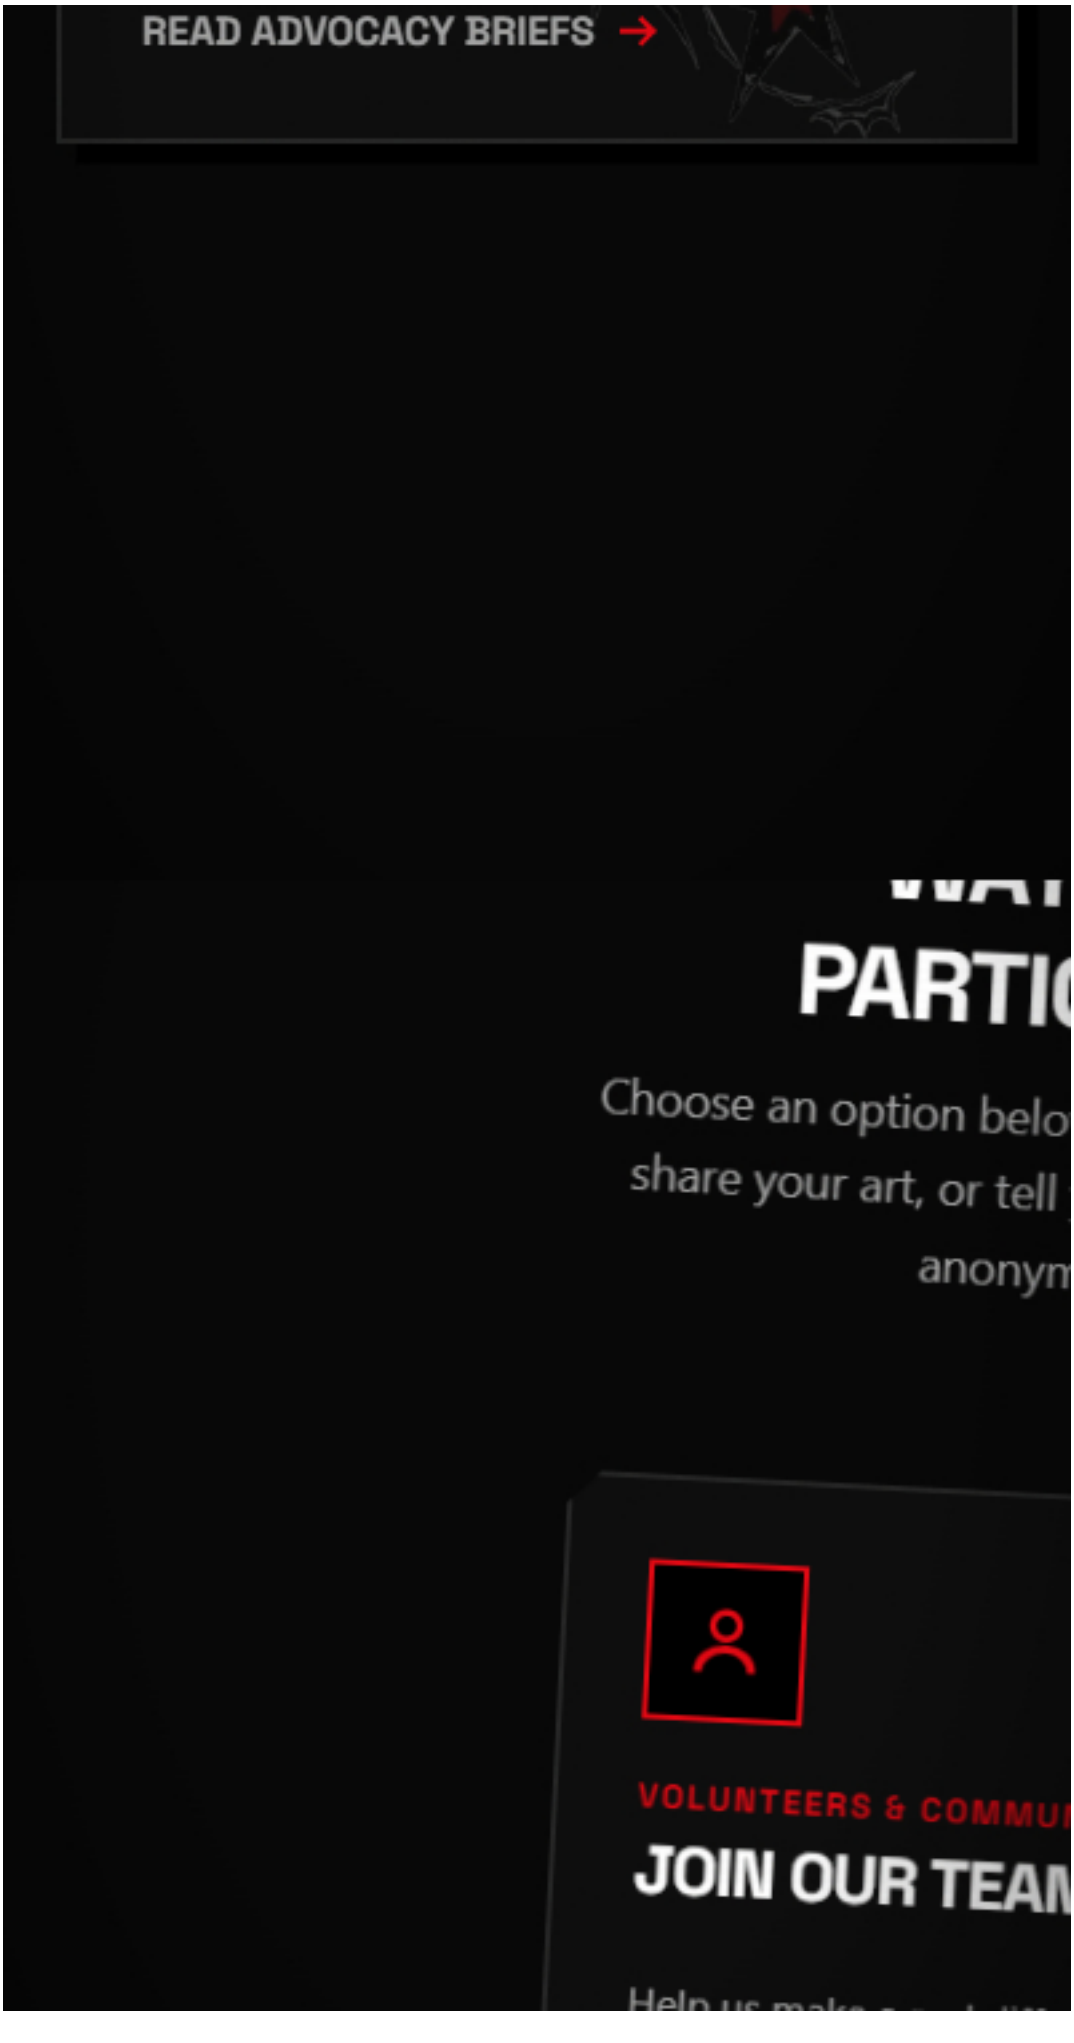

EDUCATION & ADVOCACY

MINDSET SHIFT

Challenging victim-blaming culture and educating the public to clear dangerous misconceptions surrounding sexual violence through open dialogues and awareness.

- Dismantling toxic victim-blaming narratives
- Community awareness campaigns & youth dialogues
- Clearing systemic misconceptions around gender violence

WHERE YOUR MONEY GOES

AUDIT-READY

Funds gathered go directly to supporting survivors via partner organizations like Sayodhya Women's Help Home, with reserves stored for future large-scale fundraisers.

[01] DIRECT SAFEHOUSE RELIEF 100% ROUTED

100% of gathered relief funds are transferred to established safehouses, including Sayodhya Women's Help Home, providing immediate shelter, medicine, and food.

[02] FUTURE EVENT RESERVES TRANSPARENT

A small operational reserve is stored transparently to finance future large-scale community fundraisers (like Battle of the Bands) to generate exponentially more aid.

[03] ZERO PLATFORM CUT DIRECT UPI

Direct peer-to-peer UPI transfers incur zero payment gateway commissions, maximizing the real-world impact of your donation.
